Dear Xindi,

We are delighted by the prospect of you joining Precision Strategies ("Precision" or "Company") and this letter will confirm the offer to you of employment. Your title will be Senior Associate, Designer, and you will be based in Precision's New York office.

Should you accept this job offer, you'll be eligible to receive the following upon your May 4, 2026, start date, or some other mutually agreed-upon date of hire:

- Salary: Annual gross salary of $80,000 paid twice monthly (via direct deposit). You will also be eligible for a discretionary annual bonus. While we do not guarantee bonuses at the end of each year, bonuses based on individual and Company performance have historically been as high as 10 percent or, in exceptional cases, 20 percent of an employee's annual salary.
- Benefits: Standard benefits for full-time employees, including group health insurance (CareFirst Group Health Insurance Medical, Dental and Vision coverage), and a 401K and generous profit-sharing plan with company contribution. Additionally, Precision provides every employee the ability to work remotely 50% of working days in a month.
- Vacation: 15 days of vacation, plus one additional day for every calendar year you're with Precision, up to 20 days. Precision also closes the office between Christmas Day and New Year's Day. For the 2026 calendar year, you will have 10 vacation days, 2 floating holidays, and 6.5 sick days.
- Professional Development: Up to $750 per year for professional development, as approved by your supervisor.
- Business Development Bonus: For any new client that you are responsible for bringing to Precision, a discretionary bonus (commission) of up to 7.5 percent of net sales, defined as client billings less third-party costs (e.g. vendors or subcontractors) will be paid on that business as long as the client is actively engaged with Precision and in good financial standing. Commissions are paid annually and paid in March of the following year when Precision's previous year's financial statements are reviewed and closed.

Precision extends this offer of employment subject to you meeting the following terms and conditions:

- Employment Status: Your employment will be "at-will," and this letter does not constitute a guaranty of employment or a specific term of employment. Accordingly, the Company may terminate your employment at any time for any reason with or without cause. Similarly, you have the right to terminate your employment at any time for any reason. This is a full-time "Exempt" position that is not eligible for overtime.
- Adherence to Precision Policies: You agree that during your term of employment with Precision, you will abide by Company policies as defined in the Precision Employee Handbook, which is available to all employees upon the start of their employment.

- Zero-Tolerance Harassment Policy: Precision has a zero-tolerance policy toward discrimination and all forms of unlawful harassment, including but not limited to sexual harassment. This zero-tolerance policy means that no form of unlawful discriminatory or harassing conduct by or towards any employee, member, vendor, or other person in our workplace or jobsites will be tolerated, and violation of said harassment policies will result in the termination of your employment. Precision also requires newly hired managers to complete Harassment Policy training within 60 days from their employment start date from a vendor and course selected by and paid for by the Company.
- Job Offer Contingency: This offer of employment to you is contingent on verification of your prior employment and educational information, satisfactory results from our reference and background checks, and verification of your identity and right to work in the United States. The Company reserves the right to change any of the terms or condition of your employment at any time in its sole discretion.

At Precision, we've built an experienced team of professionals who drive smart, strategic campaigns for a wide variety of corporate, nonprofit, and political clients. Given your previous experience, we are confident that your knowledge and skills will be a valuable asset and addition to our team. We were impressed with you throughout the interview process, and we hope you'll join us.

Sincerely,

Signed by:
